

Role Description:

FULL BACK

Technical

- Pass and receive accurately over short, medium and long distances.
- Handle the ball competently, recognizing when and how to start attacks.
- Be capable of making good crosses into the penalty area.
- Receive to play with an open body position.
- Capable of defending in 1v1 situations.
- Capable of marking and tracking opponents.
- Ability to dominate in the air and defend at the back post.

Tactical

- Move into relevant positions to help support ball progression when your team is in possession.
- Recognize passing priorities in relation to the attacking strategy of the team.
- Recognize different techniques to start building out from the defensive third.
- Recognize when to tuck in when the ball is on the opposite side of the pitch.
- Understand the importance of transition when position has been lost (i.e. Recovery Runs).
- Know when to mark space or mark opponents.
- Be in the correct defensive position when the opposition has the ball in their own half.
- Recognize when to drop in order to protect the space behind your defensive unit.
- Cover and supports teammates and understand the importance of this process.
- Recognize when to press in order to delay the play.

- Be able to play as part of a defensive unit.
- Understand when, where and how to press the ball, in relation to areas of the pitch and in relation to the circumstances of the game.

Mental

- Show composure when under pressure.
- Remain focused at all times.
- Be a good decision-maker.
- Have undoubted desire to perform and to be the best.
- Possess self-confidence and be fearless in all aspects of your game.

Physical

- Have excellent acceleration.
- Have exceptional maximum speed.
- Have exceptional endurance ability.

Social

- Take responsibility & ownership of learning & development.
- Give maximum effort all of the time.
- Have good communication skills on and off the pitch.
- Respond effectively to instructions and guidance.
- Work well with others and independently.
- Have a strong Character.
- HAVE FUN.